

You are a partner.

With FaithLife Financial, you won't wait in priority sequence.
We answer your phone calls and work with you every step of the way.

As a broker, you have many options available to you – making the right choice about what to offer your clients can be a challenge. As you weigh your options, consider FaithLife Financial. We are a Christian-based financial services organization with a rich heritage spanning more than 100 years. We provide life insurance, and income protection products to Canadian Christians to help them achieve financial security. Our goal is to help you grow your business in this unique niche market.

Experience the FaithLife Financial difference

Offer your clients competitive financial products plus added benefits

- Not only will you meet clients' insurance needs – your clients become members and are part of something bigger. They'll enjoy the satisfaction of knowing that their insurance choices are helping support the Christian community PLUS they will receive a range of added benefits.

Work with a not-for-profit organization

- We are entrepreneurial and focus on doing well as a business in order to do good for our members, their churches and the world at large through grants and special member benefits. We use our profits to support causes our members care about locally, nationally and around the world.

- Our team is committed to helping you succeed because your success selling FaithLife Financial products means that, together, we can do more to build a better world.

Serve Canadian Christians – a unique niche market

- Give your Christian clients an option that helps them combine their faith and financial planning.
- Through FaithLife Financial you can provide financial information from a faith perspective – keeping charitable giving and Christian stewardship front and centre.
